

THE YALE BROADCASTING COMPANY, INC.

242-A Yale Station

New Haven

Dear Subscriber:

The Yale Broadcasting Company's 20th Anniversary Year, which we have just completed, has been one of our most productive. There are, however, a few "loose ends" which must be taken care of before we begin working on our plans for next fall.

Because we consider you to be our most loyal listeners and friends, we offer our apologies for not having printed a May issue of the WYBC-FM Program Guide. Time and money were the motivating factors behind this unexpected cancellation. As WYBC-FM left the air for the summer on May 18, only two weeks of programming would have been included. Even with this abbreviation, however, the cost of printing a Guide of this caliber is a considerable one. As you know, the Yale Broadcasting Company operates independently of the University, and we must meet all of our expenses through our own efforts. We have offered this detailed listing of our many fine music and special events programs as a free service to all of our listeners, and hopefully this will continue in the fall.

WYBC-FM will resume broadcasting on Sunday, September 30. We have appreciated your interest in us during this important year, and hope that we may serve you once again in the months ahead. Until then, all of the undergraduate members of the Yale Broadcasting Company join me in extending to you best wishes for a pleasant summer.

Sincerely yours,

John H. Davison
